

Care built for better access, improved outcomes and lower costs

Centers of Excellence (COEs) use evidence-based, quality-of-care protocols to deliver cost-effective care for complex medical procedures, focusing on:

- Cancer/oncology care and more

42% contractual savings from Cancer Support Program<sup>1</sup>

40% lower Congenital Heart Disease COE average length of stays vs. non-COE<sup>2</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Derosa, A., average discounts for Optum clients when they access Optum COE programs. Data assessed May 12, 2016. <sup>2</sup> Liu. UnitedHealthcare commercial population January 2011–December 2018. June 2020. n = 11,098