

Save money by using Preferred Lab facilities

With the Oxford Preferred Lab benefit, you can visit any outpatient facility designated as an Oxford Preferred Lab Network (PLN) provider. Oxford PLN lab care providers meet higher quality standards and reduce your total cost of care. You may even receive services at zero cost — depending on your Oxford plan benefits.

Ask your doctor

- Do you know the cost of the tests you're ordering?
- Can the test be performed in an Oxford PLN lab care facility? It can help me save money.
- Can you recommend an Oxford PLN lab care provider from the Oxford network?

How to find an Oxford PLN lab care provider

- 1 Go to myuhc® > Find Care & Costs
- 2 Search under labs
- 3 Look for the blue icon next to the lab name to help eliminate or reduce your out-of-pocket costs. You can also find an Oxford PLN lab care provider using the UnitedHealthcare® app or by calling the member phone number on your health plan ID card.

Who's in the Oxford PLN?

The Oxford Preferred Lab Network contains select laboratories that are committed to improving access, quality and service at a lower cost. Oxford PLN lab care providers include:

- Laboratory Corporation of America (Labcorp)
- Quest Diagnostics, Inc.
